

Call for IPL (Integrated Program in Law) Lecturer Position

The Indian Institute of Management Rohtak is a leading management institute with large number of students across various programmes and significant executive education activity. IIM Rohtak is located in NCR (National Capital Region) and is approximately one and a half hours from New Delhi airport. Institute invites applications for the position of Lecturer (on contract). The position is purely on contract and ad-hoc/temporary basis and will not be absorbed in permanent vacancy. Candidates would be expected to contribute to the Institute's IPL Programme or any other related programmes as directed by the competent authority.

Applications are invited from the candidates in the field of Law.

Qualifications: 1) Law faculty: LLB and LLM from an academic institution of national repute. Preference will be given to the candidates having Ph.D. and teaching experience in reputable institution.

Interested candidates may send their CV, list of references and samples of recent research output to diroffice@iimrohtak.ac.in . The subject line in the email should clearly mention "Application for IPL Lecturer Position". Information of the Institute is available at www.iimrohtak.ac.in. The applications would be processed as per the needs of the Institute. Last date of receipt of the application is December 30, 2023.